1. Integration of Ethos in the University Curriculum

What sets us apart from other tertiary institution is the Integration of a strong ethos in the University curriculum. The University foundation courses include courses in Ethics, The Social teachings of the church and Information Technology. These programs are aimed at preparing professionals who possess critical thinking skills and an appreciation and recognition of the inherent human dignity. As a University, we believe that education should prepare one to three ultimate ends; "the attainment of the common good, and the acceptance of the inherent human dignity, the reservation of family values.

2. Holistic Education

We believe that education should be holistic, it should prepare one, not only academically, but also socially, mentally and spiritually. Throughout the time one is at our institution, these values are inculcated using both academic and extra curriculum activities. Every Sunday and Wednesday, there is mass in the University Chapel. The University also as a vibrant Small Christian Community - Catholic Student Community (CASC) - that engages youths in evangelical work. Furthermore, the University, through the Office of the Dean of Students has an active sport curriculum for students to participate in tournaments locally and with other universities.

3. Good Academic Curriculum

The University's academic Curriculum is constantly updated to suite current demands and trends in the corporate world. The Course structures have been updated and new course have been introduced in the quest to produce graduates who are adequately prepared for professional and academic career opportunities. The University is proud of producing top graduates who commend respect from peers and members of the community.

4. Convenient Location

The University is conveniently located in Kalulushi along Ntundwa Drive. Kalulushi is a quiet and suitable place for your studies, away from distractions. The University is closely located to all essential facilities (Hospital, Shopping facilities etc.) which are easy to access. All accommodation facilities are located closely to the University Campus and can be accessed with a minimum of seven minute walk.

5. Strong University Support Programs for Sports

The University, through the office of the Dean of Students, has continued to support the various sports that students can participate in. In the past semesters, the University has participated in tournaments at local levels with supporting partners and corporate bodies. All sporting activities are organized jointly with the Zambia Catholic Student Organization (ZCUSO). The University has active football, basketball, volleyball, rugby, netball and chess teams that practice twice a week at the sports grounds. Students are also encouraged to introduce any sport activity of their choice through the dean of Dean and the ZCUSO office.

6. Spiritual Welfare Support

The Zambia Catholic University supports through the office of the University Chaplin to coordinate and oversee all spiritual related activities. The office of the Chaplin is also open to consultation and counselling to all registered students. The spiritual warfare activities extend to everyone in the university regardless of their religious affiliation. There are three main spiritual gatherings in the university, namely Catholic Student Community (CASC), Youth Forum and ZAFES. Students are encouraged to continue their spiritual growth by joining at least one of these groups.
